

Going Divine in 2009!

Three men. Drawn together by the use of a sacred symbol and vibration. Living their passion and joy. Changing the consciousness of the planet, one frequency at a time. Meet Dr. Leonard Horowitz, Courtney Milne, and Scott Huckabay. Warriors and artists, fulfilling their quest for wholeness.

You are invited to join LIVE H2O on June 19-21, 2009, The Concert for the Living Water. “Bringing together the brightest minds, warmest hearts, most advanced science, and uplifting spirituality, the “LOVE Water Experiment,” is a musical prayer celebrated by millions of people worldwide on Sunday, June 21, 2009. The event will marry the “Universal Solvent”--Water, with the “Universal Language”--music, to baptize humanity bioenergetically with the “Universal Healer”--LOVE.” (see <http://liveh20.org>)

The purpose is to save the planet, secure world peace, celebrate free energy, promote natural healing, and honor the living water for sustainability and conscious evolution. In other words, change the planet and our selves through the frequency of LOVE.

Three days featuring world experts, artists, and elders sharing the intention of healing our water within as we heal the water on the planet through the music, prayer, acts of toning, and the vibration of love.

Happening through online connections everywhere, and at nine main venues internationally including Los Angeles, Vancouver, Hawaii, Toronto, Egypt, Uganda, London, and more to be announced, LIVE H2O is unprecedented in scope. (See: <http://liveh2o.org/Venues.html>)

The goals include 144,000 online vocalists, an additional 1 million in global prayer, an 81 minute love chant that resonates water everywhere with the frequency of love (528hz), and celebrities and recording artists lending their hearts and fame to honor Water.

“It is already complete in the ethers. We’re just going through the motions in the physical realm,” said Dr. Leonard Horowitz, Executive Producer of Live H2O, and author of numerous books on health and healing.

“We are healing this planet, creating a paradigm shift in a way the ‘cryptocracy’ can’t ignore or destroy. They will have to get on board this peace train or be destroyed. This is after all, the Divine Plan. The Spiritual Renaissance is the Achilles heel of the Illuminati. Something I’ve prayed for since my mother’s death due to a vaccine administered unconsciously by a ‘medical diety’.”

Dr. Horowitz wasn't always a rebel toward the perceived sources of power and conventional medicine. A graduate of Tufts and Harvard, with a string of advanced degrees behind his name, he really believed in medicine and its ability to help heal the sick.

"Why else would I have persuaded people to accept vaccines?" he said, his voice choking on the emotion of regret, self-condemnation, and suffering.

When his mother died of a vaccine, it provided him with the opportunity to investigate modern medicine more completely. And what he found so horrified him, he knew it was his life mission to change the medical world from one of deceit and illness-causing agents, administered under the guise of "healthcare," to a whole co-creative universe of integrity and wellness.

The author of LOVE the Real Da Vinci CODE, DNA Pirates of the Sacred Spiral, Healing Celebrations, Healing Codes For The Biological Apocalypse, Death in the Air, and Emerging Viruses: AIDS and Ebola (which the New York Times refused to review), Dr. Horowitz began exposing his findings.

Although his views have not all been well received, Dr. Horowitz was invited to speak at an AIDS convention in Africa, where he ironically experienced a very dark night of his soul.

Conspiring with the middle management of his hotel where he was speaking, they printed thousands of flyers about AIDS. Each flyer indicated that AIDS was a man-made virus and that there was a cure. The supplement OxySilver (<http://www.oxysilver.com/>) boosts mega-immunity without vaccination toxicity. It zaps bacteria, viruses, and fungi and frees the immune system to help speed self-healing. Thousands of flyers were printed as an educational tool and in preparation for the main event.

The hour came and hotel people were stationed at all the doors with their stacks of flyers to hand out. Moments before the doors were opened, a swarm of security 'officials' confiscated every one of the flyers.

His heart broken, Dr. Horowitz retreated to this room.

He railed at God, saying "Why in the world would you put me here to serve, and then take away the very opportunity to do so?"

And he heard the answer.

"Because it isn't about only one illness. It's about all of them. And how to make a difference by healing all of them. . . . Study da Vinci," he heard a voice say. "Your 'Perfect Circle of Sound' is the circle in The Vitruvian Man."

So Horowitz feverishly researched his next book, Love the REAL da Vinci Code. He studied the original musical scale Solfeggio frequencies. These are the foundation for ancient music, he learned. The “sweetest song/tones ever sung.’

After writing Healing Codes for the Biological Apocalypse, world leading sound healing expert Jonathan Goldman contacted him, asking him about there being nine frequencies.

“Of course!” Horowitz got it instantly. “There must be nine. Nine is the number of completion!”

His research, study, and meditation had led him to the understanding of the power of the frequencies, in particular the 528Hz frequency, the LOVE tone of the universe.

The center frequency of the nine Solfeggio frequencies, 528 resonates with the heart. Light greenish-yellow in color, it is the frequency of miracles and DNA repair, a frequency fundamental to Pi, PHI and the Fibonacci series.

Collaborating with Dr. Emoto and examining water crystals with the understanding that love and gratitude have a powerful impact on water molecule appearance, Horowitz then considered broadcasting 528Hz musically, through the world’s oceans, with Love and Thanks.

A major problem he discovered is that modern musical instruments are all tuned to the frequency of 440Hz. Since of the early part of last century, that’s just the way it was.

Whether that was done to hide or mask the vibration of love and humanity’s spirituality, or by ‘accident’ is really irrelevant. What matters is, can this frequency be changed and can musicians now play at the frequency of 528?

Horowitz searched a long time before he found Scott Huckabay, an acoustical guitarist who was not only willing to experiment with music in this frequency, but has brought it forward in an empowering and life changing way—for himself and for the planet. (See March’s Issue of Spirit of Maat for Scott’s story).

After teaming up with Huckabay to form Tetrahedron Records (<http://www.tetrahedronrecords.com>) Horowitz was moved to create a world-wide event designed to heal and spiritually uplift the planet.

Combining his and Emoto’s work with water, understanding that the planet is 80% water, and our bodies are at least 70%, Horowitz’s envisioned toning the frequency of love and miracles into water worldwide to engage civilization in a global baptism. Since we now know water operates consciously, responding rapidly to prayer to become purer, LIVE H2O may help purify polluted water. And since we are made of mostly water, our bodies will also resonate in harmony with the Living Water vibrating with LOVE and purification. Healings are expected.

To do this with as many voices as possible, Horowitz is utilizing the energies of specific world places called “energy vortexing,” plus raising and donating money for the Internet broadcasting technology needed for people unable to travel. Jonathan Goldman and friends have donated on-line chanting and toning rooms to accommodate people of every religion and culture. (If you want to add your voice and heart-felt loving intent to this healing project, Jonathan Goldman invites you to visit <http://www.templeofsacredsound.org>.)

During the three-day LIVE H2O solstice event there are a few rules:

No drugs.

No egos or self-interest.

No death threats. (Oh yes, Horowitz has had those too!)

You only need one thing to participate. LOVE from your heart with prayerful intention to bless humanity and ecology.

Oh, and where does Courtney Milne appear?

As one of Canada’s most innovative artists, his career collection of more than 650,000 photographs includes some of the world’s most stunning landscapes. The author and photographer of twelve books including The Sacred Earth, a compilation of spectacular sacred places on our planet. Courtney has experimented in his own unique and phenomenal way with the 528 Love and Thanks symbol, called the Water Resonator. (See his websites <http://www.courtneymilne.com> and <http://www.poolofpossibilities.com> for a sneak peek of the content of the March issue of Spirit of Maat.)

Please check out LIVEH2O.org and see if you feel called to join us in love and thanks, June 19-21, 2009, wherever you are, in whatever way you can.

Because you can.

If you are interested in attending a live venue and/or assisting with one, please contact the coordinator for that particular event here: <http://liveh2o.org/Venues.html>
In particular, local bands tuned to the 528 frequency are needed to share heart opening songs. Meditation leaders and healers of all kinds are requested to share their skills.

In love and gratitude,
Phoenix Rising Star
